Webinar Instructions

- To improve sound quality, all participants will be muted for the duration of the webinar. If you want to ask a question you have two options:
  1. Enter your query where it says “Enter a question for staff” and click send. A NFWF staff member will type a response or read your question aloud when we pause for Q&A.
  2. Write it down and contact us after the webinar. We have a lot of material to cover, so you may prefer to have a more in-depth discussion later.
- We may ask you to raise your “hand” in the webinar dialogue box to confirm participants can hear us.
- If you experience a technical glitch, please type it into the question box, since we can’t hear you. (We may not know about the glitch unless you say something!)

Frequently Asked Question – 1

Q: Is land acquisition or conservation easement eligible under this program?

A: The focus of the 2022 ATBC is to implement restoration priorities identified in established or new conservation plans, broader ongoing restoration efforts and/or projects that are informed by Indigenous Traditional Knowledge (ITK) and promote Tribal co-stewardship. Voluntary acquisition and easement projects are not excluded, but to be competitive, the application must demonstrate how the acquisition or easement is critical to the overall landscape restoration and/or stewardship work being conducted.

In short, acquisition or easement efforts in an ATBC proposal could be a means to achieving a broader restoration or conservation goal, but not the goal of the project itself.

An example would be protecting land within a high priority migration corridor as part of a broader effort to improve the overall health and functionality of that corridor.

Frequently Asked Question – 2

Q: Can multiple organizations submit a joint application for one project?

A: Yes, we encourage applicants to assemble strategic and collaborative partnerships in support of a project. However, the proposal can only have one primary applicant organization, and the point of contact in Easygrants must be directly affiliated with the applicant organization. If awarded, all funding will flow through the applicant organization, which will be responsible for managing subawards to any project partners.

Frequently Asked Question – 3

Q: Can an organization submit more than one application for this RFP?

A: Yes, more than one application may be submitted, but please note that anything beyond two or three submissions per grant category may see diminished competitiveness. We generally encourage applicants to submit the one or two of their best projects per RFP grant category. Please do not submit the same project to multiple categories — select only the most appropriate one.

Frequently Asked Question – 4

Q: Can you explain the Tribal eligibility in more detail? The phrases Tribal government, Tribe, Indian Tribe, and Tribal-affiliated organization have all been used in the RFP – what is the distinction?

A: In general, for the ATBC RFP, any Federally Recognized Tribe is eligible for funding through all four grant categories. A Tribal-affiliated organization is one that is directly managed or run by the Tribe and would include entities like a native corporation or Tribal fish and wildlife department. Third-party associations or organizations collaborating with Tribes are not eligible to be lead applicants for grant categories 1 and 2, but may be sub-awardees and partners in proposals. State Recognized Tribes are also not eligible to be lead applicants for grant categories 1 and 2, but they are encouraged to partner with state or eligible Tribal applicants and can be sub-awardees in proposals.

Frequently Asked Question – 5

Q: What if you have a project idea for the implementation or planning, collaboration, and engagement grant categories, but you aren't an eligible applicant?

A: Ineligible applicants for these two grant categories are encouraged to partner with eligible applicants (states, territories, and Tribes). Subawards and subcontracts to NGOs, associations, state recognized Tribes, counties/municipalities, land trusts, and others are allowed for all four grant categories.

Frequently Asked Question – 6

Q: What sort of information should be included in project context?

A: While NFWF, our funding partners, and our proposal reviewers have extensive conservation and restoration expertise, they may not know the context of your particular project. Please do make every effort to tell us why this is the right time for this project, why these are the right actions to take, and why it should happen in this geography. Also describe any additional plans (ITK, municipal, federal, state, etc) and goals this project helps deliver—but do not upload each of those full plans with your proposal (you may provide links). If you are submitting a proposal for planning, collaboration, or capacity building, please be sure to clearly characterize the final project vision and what implementation will achieve/benefit.

Frequently Asked Question – 7

Q: How do we pick which metrics showcase the potential impact of our project? How do we calculate or estimate the target value?

A: Metrics should be reasonable, achievable, and tell a story about your project. You can see the full list of metrics in Appendix 1 of the RFP. Please include at least one metric relevant to reporting your project's progress. When in Easygrants, hover your mouse cursor over the “?” next to a metric to read its description and specific guidance. For each metric you will need to provide values for “Starting Value” and “Target Value.” In all cases the starting value will be zero (0). In your project narrative, you will have the opportunity to describe additional activities and outcomes associated with your project. Please only select metrics associated with the project elements for which you are requesting funding in this grant. Be sure to add metrics notes, click the small notepad icon to the right of a selected metric to add notes. Adding notes to metrics assists reviewers in understanding how values were determined.

Frequently Asked Question – 8

Q: Can we request funding for planning, collaboration, engagement and capacity building activities? What if my project is doing both implementation and planning?

A: Yes, activities associated with planning, collaboration, engagement, and capacity building are eligible. It will be helpful to show what initial steps are already underway and what partners and/or impacted communities have offered support or buy-in. Be sure to articulate the ultimate potential and vision for the effort. Giving reviewers the full picture—in addition to describing the activities for which funding is requested—will be helpful. If your project includes a combination of planning and implementation, try to apply to the category that best fits the scope of work and clearly describe each part and how they work together in a seamless effort. If the planning and implementation work does not fit together, then they should be submitted as two separate projects.

Frequently Asked Question – 9

Q: Can you clarify what you mean by capacity building? Will you fund staff positions to help deliver conservation and restoration?

A: We are open to a wide variety of capacity building activities as it relates to increasing the capacity of an organization or collaborative network to deliver on-the-ground restoration or conservation that aligns with the program priorities. In terms of funding full-time positions, while this is an eligible use of funds and budgets should be constructed to adequately reflect what's needed to deliver the project, be aware that full or partial funding of a staff position is not guaranteed after the end date of your project. Be sure to include context on the need for the position and how it will be sustained post-award.

Frequently Asked Question – 10

Q: Is ATBC the same as the 30 by 30 Initiative?

A: The America the Beautiful Challenge is intended to fund a broader range of outcomes focused on conservation and restoration, whereas the 30x30 Initiative is a worldwide effort to designate 30 percent of the Earth's lands and oceans as protected areas by the year 2030. The America the Beautiful Challenge includes objectives such as conserving and restoring rivers, coasts, wetlands, and watersheds and connecting and reconnecting wildlife corridors, large landscapes, watersheds, and seascapes. In short, the ATBC is much more comprehensive and focused on a broader range of activities to conserve and restore America's natural heritage for the benefit of future generations.

Frequently Asked Question – 11

Q: Is the ATBC related to the Justice40 Initiative?

A: The ATBC incorporates aspects of the Justice40 initiative since one of the ATBC priorities is direct outreach and engagement with communities, especially underserved communities. The Justice40 Initiative also focus on community engagement but includes many other priorities beyond this. Applicants are encouraged to show how their project engages residents and communities and particularly underserved communities that lack access to the outdoors or opportunities to engage with and learn about nature. In the narrative template, there is a question where applicants can describe the community impacted by the project and how they will be engaged.

Frequently Asked Question – 12

Q: How is ATBC different from NFWF's National Coastal Resilience Fund (NCRF)? If I already applied to NCRF and haven't heard back yet, can I apply to ATBC with the same project?

A: While NCRF and ATBC are both national programs with an emphasis on resilience, ATBC is not limited to funding only in coastal areas or only on flooding/coastal resilience. In terms of project focus, although ATBC does prioritize projects aimed at mitigating flooding and storm threats, it may also fund projects that improve resilience to fire and drought. You may submit the same project to both NCRF and ATBC, but note that we will not fund the project through both programs. NFWF staff will work to identify and address any overlap, but feel free to reach out to us with specific project submission questions.

Frequently Asked Question – 13

Q: If we didn't have to undergo an A-133/Single Audit, do we upload a statement to that effect?

A: Depending on your organization type, you may not be required to provide this upload. To see which documents are required of your organization go here: <https://www.nfwf.org/apply-grant/applicationinformation/required-financial-documents>. If an upload does not apply to your organization, you will need to upload a simple document stating it is not needed and why in one to two sentences in lieu of the financial document itself. The same applies for the Statement of Litigation requirement (state and local government applicants are not required to complete this document).

Frequently Asked Question – 14

Q: We have privacy concerns when it comes to submitting a full proposal. How will the data provided in the proposal be used and distributed?

A: As stated earlier, the applicant demographic data will not be shared with reviewers, nor used to make grant decisions. Additionally, all financial documents submitted will not be shared with reviewers or externally to NFWF. The Foundation will not share identifying information about any particular entity or project and proposal content will be kept confidential.

All reviewers are subject to a confidentiality clause in order to participate, and are not allowed to share any proposal details outside of their own personal review.
