Frequently Asked Question – 1

Q: How much funding is available this year?

A: The ability and extent to which NFWF is able to make awards is contingent upon receipt of funds from federal agencies and/or other funding partners. Final funding decisions will be made based on the applications received and the level and timing of funding received by NFWF.

Frequently Asked Question – 2

Q: What is the earliest date match can be incurred and count towards a project?

A: For 2026 applicants may have a match look back period that begins on January 1, 2025, assuming all other match conditions are met.

- Project start date should still reflect when proposed project activities will begin
- Project cannot start before July 1, 2026
- Any match incurred prior to your project start date should be noted in your application, including when the match was spent

**This policy is pending and subject to change as our cooperative agreement with U.S. FWS has not yet been executed, but we anticipate being able to provide this match flexibility.**

Frequently Asked Question – 3

Q: There are a few metrics we'd like to select that really showcase the potential impact of our project, but they seem complicated to calculate. Where do we begin?

A: Metrics should be reasonable, achievable, and tell a story about your project. There is a “toolbox” for DWCF applicants that offers some resources for establishing project context and calculating project impact.

Add metric notes! They help provide a clearer picture of your project for reviewers, and you will be required to enter them in later!

Frequently Asked Question – 4

Q: What about design and planning?
Can we request funding for these kinds of activities?

A: Yes! Design and planning are eligible projects. To make your proposal more competitive, make sure to articulate its ultimate potential and that the proposal shows how there is future possibility for the project, that the groundwork is underway, and partners and agencies have been contacted.

Frequently Asked Question – 5

Q: I'm not sure what category my project idea fits best under - can I select multiple categories for a single proposal?

A: Applicants should only select one project category. If you aren't sure where your project fits, come into a proposal lab to discuss!

Frequently Asked Question – 6

Q: Should project partners submit a single proposal or will NFWF consider multiple proposals from the project partners?

A: One of the evaluation criteria for NFWF's proposal review is the strength of the partnership assembled to implement the project.

- It would be beneficial for partners to ensure that proposals are well coordinated, fully supported and complementary. Whether a single, larger proposal is submitted or multiple is up to the partners.
- It would NOT be ideal for competing proposals addressing the same project or approach to be received.
- Reach out to program contacts to discuss specific circumstances if needed.

Frequently Asked Question – 7

Q: Is the budget narrative really all that important?

A: Yes! The budget narrative allows reviewers to understand what will be accomplished through grant funds, and what portion of the project will be covered by matching funds. You will be required to complete a budget narrative if you are selected for funding, and this can delay contracting. Save yourself some time and include the budget narratives from the beginning!

Frequently Asked Question – 8

Q: I want to apply for a continuation of previously funded work – is a continuation of work eligible/competitive under the DWCF?

A: Yes! Applicants proposing a continuation of work should be able to speak to lessons learned through the first phase of work funded and provide justification for why additional funding is needed.

Final Tips for Applicants

1. Print/download the tip sheet and use it as a reference
2. Re-read the RFP and reference the linked-information provided
3. These are competitive grants; projects should address all criteria, respond to all requirements and have a “wow” factor
4. Include lots of context and details—do not assume reviewers know things about your project!
5. Don’t skimp on the metrics notes. Read the new Metrics Guidance documents for specific metric instructions.
6. Submit your proposal ON OR BEFORE March 26th!
7. Note that NFWF staff will not be in the office at 11:59 pm on March 26th!
8. Reach out if you need help.
